ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.

REV. SAM P. JONES, THE EVANGELIST HAS SOMETHING TO SAY.

He Advises the Kind of Life to Live to Obtain Positions of Honor and Trust.

[The Atlanta Journal.]

Kansas City, Mo., March 6.—Give me your attention, young man. I've been a young man; now I am an old man, so to speak. Admitting your intelligence I claim that experience and observation have helped me to see some things that simple intelligence does not observe. There are two words which cover three worlds, success and failure. God has endowed you with volition, and that means choice, and choice means, simply, I'll take this, you may have that. Choice means also two or more things are offered. If there was only one thing in sight then it's Hobson's choice.

If one is a good thing and the other bad, then choose the good. If both are good, then take the gooder. If both are bad then take neither. Not like one of the candidates for governor of Georgia said the other day: "Of two evils, I never take the greater." That's politics, pure and simple, and the devil is running that whole business.

Real success has its foundations just like the houses we live in, and the very basis of success is good character. As sure as that the constitution follows the flag, so good character must lead the way in all successful undertakings. The young man who thinks he must drink whiskey and "cuss" to help you make a man of himself is a fool to begin with. If I were running a saloon I would want a decent, sober bar-keeper.

I was not long finding a place of trust and honor for a young man of my town, some time ago, when I said to a leading railroad official with whom I wanted to place him, "that he was not only bright and efficient and trustworthy, but that he was as clean in his life as his sweet Christian mother. He has never touched whiskey, wine or beer, swore an oath or handled a deck of cards." "Send him to me," said the official, and that young man has been promoted the third time in twelve months, and I dare say, will yet be president of that great railroad system. It pays to be decent it never pays to be otherwise. The boy who knows how to be a gentleman, and knows how to keep from being a dog, is in possession of the knowledge which makes him master of the situation.

No use talking, young man, about your having self control and will power. The way to keep clean is not to rub up against the things that will "smut you." I don't care how much you may boast of will power, whiskey will make you drunk.

Again, God nor man can ever help you to be somebody, until you make up your mind that you will be or die, do or die.

This message to you, young man, was inspired by a notice of the greatest living pianist, Paderewski, which I saw in the Kansas City Journal of yesterday. The article was headed, "Paderewski's Success Achieved Through Much Hard Work." His recital is to occur here in Convention hall, March 17th. I quote from the notice as follows:

"Paderewski has simply come to be the dominant figure in the world of music, a dominance acquired by years of patient struggle and stoical endurance of poverty and privation. The success achieved by Paderewski is not the result of chance, but the outcome of sweat and suffering, heart-burnings and humiliations."

The press has given to the world the story of his life; how at 19 years of age, he softened the sting of poverty by marrying a girl equally as poor. It is now almost impossible to estimate Paderewski's wealth. His first tour of America netted him $108,000; his second $181,000. This is the fifth, and each succeeding one has marked a financial gain over the preceding one. When it is considered that in all the European countries Paderewski is equally a favorite, it will be seen that his ten years of success have netted him millions. Even with all his immense charities and open handed generosity, he has not been able to deplete all his wealth. He has a magnificent home in Poland and Switzerland and princely apartments in Paris. The newspapers no longer busy them selves with his flame-colored hair, or melancholy eyes or how he appears on the stage, or how he holds his knife at the table. But now they tell us of his thorough deep knowledge of the innermost secrets and feelings of the "piano soul," and his own acquaintance with the hopes and fears, sorrows and sufferings that fill every human life. Now the press make it easier for him to do what no other man can do.

Paderewski made up his mind that he would wear the crowns of Chopin, Rubenstein and with his mind made up he worked and suffered and persevered until he has as surely won as that he wears their crowns. Young man, this not only holds good with Paderewski, but its true of all great men, from Adam down to Paderewski.

Work, perseverance, suffering. Throw to the winds all easy jobs. A thing that is easy done is not worth doing. The things you do that call for brain, sweat, soul sweat and body sweat are the things that make success not only possible but sure.

"An idle head is the devil's workshop." Yes, and an idle boy is the devil's saddle horse, and the devil is most generally in the saddle, too. Shun idleness like you would a saloon, for they are two things that get mighty thick on short acquaintance.

Again, take care of your integrity. When it becomes necessary in your life for you to tell a lie, then you need to go back and start life over again. You can't build on a lie. There is but one thing in the world that will fit down on a lie, and that is another lie.

Again, if you would succeed, be a gentleman. Kindness and courtesy costs but little, but they are companions of good fellowship and furnish a store house for friends, and you will need friends, just as you need air and water. Again, avoid all games of chance, from craps to cotton futures. They destroy your taste for honest toil, just as yellow-back novels destroy all taste for useful knowledge. A dollar earned by sweat and toil is worth a million won on puts and calls.

Again, cherish only the friendship and companionship of good men and women. Be as careful of your company as you are of your destiny.

Again, marry, young man, marry. The old question pretty nearly covers the ground, "Are you a married man or a dog?" God's best gift to a little boy is a good mother. God's best gift to a young man is a good wife. There are too many young men postponing marriage until they have a competency to support a wife decently, as they say. That won't do, young man. You are as foolish as the fellow who is waiting until he gets good before he joins the church. I was busted when I married and if my daddy or daddy-in-law, either, ever gave me or my wife a cent we lost it before we got home. Don't ever wait to perform a good deed. Too many old maids these days, and whenever I see an old maid I know some man has failed to do his duty.

Again, young man, stick to the Bible of your mother and the God of your father, for it is religion that must give solid comfort while we live and it is religion that must supply solid comfort when we die.

Don't be skeptical, agnostical or jassical in religion.

Read your Bible every day. Kneel down morning and night and pray to God. Observe these things and you will succeed in your calling as Paderewski has in his. If you don't, you will wind up in the end a Renskipady.

Your friend,
Sam P. Jones.

Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetter and Acne

Belong to that class of inflammatory and disfiguring skin eruptions that cause more genuine bodily discomfort and worry than all other known diseases. The impurities or sediments which collect in the system because of poor digestion, inactive kidneys and other organs of elimination are taken up by the blood, saturating the system with acid poisons and fluids that ooze out through the glands and pores of the skin, producing an indescribable itching and burning, and the yellow, watery discharge forms into crusts and sores or little blisters and white scabs that drop off, leaving the skin tender and raw. The effect of the poison may cause the skin to crack and bleed, or give it a scaly, fishy appearance; again the eruptions may consist of innumerable blackheads and pimples or hard, red bumps upon the face. Purification of the blood is the only remedy for these vicious skin diseases. Washes and powders can only hide for a time the glaring blemishes. S. S. S. eradicates all poisonous accumulations, antitoxins the urine and other acids, and restores the blood to its wonted purity, and stimulates and revitalizes the sluggish organs, and the impurities pass off through the natural channels and relieve the skin. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. It contains no Arsenic, Potash or other harmful mineral. Write us about your case and our physicians will advise without charge. We have a handsomely illustrated book on skin diseases, which will be sent free to all who wish it. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

WANTS TILLMAN TO PROVE CHARGE.

PRITCHARD INSISTS THAT HE MAKE GOOD HIS ACCUSATION.

Hanna Also Pressing—Effort to Require Investigation of Tillman's Charge Against McLaurin—In La Said Said Tillman is Prepared to Prove It.

Washington, March 25.—Senator Pritchard of North Carolina, is making an effort at the meeting of the Senate committee on privileges and elections to secure action on the resolution he introduced some time ago calling for an investigation of the charges made by Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina, against his colleague, John L. McLaurin that the latter was influenced by promises of control of federal patronage in casting his vote for the ratification of the Paris peace treaty.

There is a feeling among certain Republicans in the Senate that this subject should be allowed to drop, but Senator McLaurin's friends insist that the investigation be made, and Mr. Pritchard, who is a member of the committee before which the resolution is pending, will urge that a favorable report be adopted. Sentiment in the Senate seems to favor the adoption of this resolution. Mr. Tillman's friends say he can prove the charges he has made, while Mr. McLaurin's friends insist that he can not. Both sides, therefore, are ready to support the proposition for an investigation.

It is said that Senator J. C. Burrows of Michigan, chairman of the committee, does not favor the Pritchard resolution, and will strive to have it suppressed.

Among the warmest advocates of the resolution is Senator M. A. Hanna, who says he believes the Tillman charge reflects on the late President McKinley, and he will lend his efforts to a favorable report upon the ground that the memory of the assassinated President should be purged of all aspersions.

Gen. Hampton Taking A Lively Interest

IN THE COMING PRESENTATION OF SWORD TO MAJ. JENKINS.

He Could Not Help Being Brave—His Father Was One of the Finest Soldiers I Ever Knew, He Was Most Gallant.

[The State, 26.] No man has taken a greater interest in the presentation of a sword to Maj. Micah Jenkins than has that most distinguished of all South Carolina soldiers—Wade Hampton.

It was Gen. Hampton who selected from President Roosevelt's letter the words to be engraved on the sword originally intended for Major Jenkins. General Hampton does not personally know Major Jenkins, but he was a warm friend and admirer of Gen. Jenkins, the gallant father of the gallant Rough Rider.

In conversation a few days ago concerning the young man, Gen. Hampton said: "No higher tribute could be paid to young Jenkins than the president's words—'He is the worthy son of a noble sire.' Continuing the great Confederate cavalry leader remarked: "That young man could not be anything but brave. His father was one of the finest soldiers I ever knew; he was most gallant."

Talking on in a conversational way Gen. Hampton said that he was reminded of an incident in which Gen. Jenkins figured. "I was promoted," said the general, "before the Seven Days battle around Richmond, but when the battle began had not been assigned to a brigade. When the fighting commenced I was given a Virginia brigade and commanded it through the battle. In the course of the battle (which has gone down in history as one of the bloodiest on record) I came upon Jenkins' regiment just as it had got squarely face to face with a Yankee regiment. It was a critical moment. But Jenkins was too quick for the other fellow and fired first. The Yankees fell in their tracks—the destruction was terrible, as I saw then, and passing over the field later I realized how important Jenkins' action had been and how great the resulting loss to the enemy. The men lay there in heaps.

"After the battle," continued Gen. Hampton, "I reported to the secretary of war to give up the brigade I had commanded and to receive the one intended for me. As I was going in I met Jenkins coming out and stopped to speak to him about the fight. When I saw the secretary he proposed to give me the brigade in which was Jenkins' regiment—as they wanted me to have a South Carolina brigade. But I told the secretary I could not take that brigade—that Jenkins deserved it himself; that he had conducted himself with great gallantry and deserved promotion. And on my recommendation Col. Jenkins was promoted to the command of his brigade and another one was given me.

"Unfortunately," said Gen. Hampton, "for some reason, I never knew what Jenkins never got the major generalship which he had a right to expect. It was proposed to promote him to that rank, but the thing got in a tangle somehow and it was never done."

WEAK LUNGS

As Indicated By A Hacking Cough.

Vinol Will Cure Lung Affections.

When you have a cough you are continually fearing something worse. Do not let yourself get in this condition. Come and talk to us and let us tell you why we know Vinol is the best thing that you can take for a hacking cough with a tendency to lung trouble.

One of the greatest remedies that has ever been prescribed by physicians for consumption and all wasting diseases is cod liver oil. You know how disagreeable it is to take. We have actually seen people who would rather take their chances than to take that medicine. Now with Vinol this is all different. To be sure it owes its value to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated form the valuable medicinal properties that have made cod liver oil famous for such diseases, but let us remind you that it does not contain any oil or grease that makes the old form of cod liver oil so objectionable and often so impossible to a weakened stomach.

Try our Vinol if you are experiencing any bronchial or lung trouble. It does not upset the stomach. It will do that organ good, not only by creating an appetite but by enabling it to better assimilate the food that is taken into it. It will increase the nourishing properties of this same food, so that the system will take up all the elements it needs to make rich red blood and firm flesh.

When this is done the doors of the system are closed against consumption, and any existing irritation or diseased membrane will be cured.

Mr. Thomas Morton, Stillwater, Maine, says: "My grandson has been troubled with a bad cough lately and learning that Vinol was good for all pulmonary ills, I got a bottle of it for the boy. All I can say is that it proved just the medicine he needed. He now feels much better, and his cough has disappeared."

The reason we promise to refund the cost of Vinol, to all who do not experience the benefits that we claim it will bring about, is because we know by experience that it invariably accomplishes everything we claim for it. It is very successful.
